The nicest thing about the exam schedule which is being printed in this issue is the fact that they are over on Wednesday, January 23. Moreover, the mid-year recess of three days and the two days set aside for registration, which will be unnecessary for students filling in required blanks now, assure G. W. ites of at least six days of joyous vacation. This new order appeals to us.

The Colonials enter the big league class when they take on Navy next fall. A victory over the future admirals will give the Buff and Blue a "place in the sun." And Annapolis will be wailing the "Navy Blues."

An unofficial observer opines that the recent epidemic of sleet and slush in Washington suggested the idea of tumbling classes to the women's athletic instructors.

One young Hatchet board member on being assessed on his more or less new car for the 1930 District of Columbia license tags, discovered to his amazement that his bus was valued at $42.00 less than he has yet to pay on it. Possibly some prof. can explain the economic theory back of this.

While on the subject of value and price, we are reminded of a prominent member of the Liberal Club, whose organization is sponsoring this week a talk on the stock exchange collapse. This particular member complained to friends this week that his Curtis-Wright had only gone up seven points in the last few days.

A critic of this column, who dislikes our conservative views, sends us a clipping which is to the effect that a few months ago a man was taken into a hospital for an operation on his skull. His brain was removed, and through some accident was not replaced. He escaped, and according to the clipping, was rumored to be conducting a column in some university newspaper.

The Interfraternity Prom Committee will win the undying gratitude of all men at the University as a result of holding the affair earlier in the year, and thus guaranteeing stiff shirt fronts and collars at the end as well as at the beginning of the ball. Now all the committee has to do is to get music that all will like, favors that will be the talk of the town (and plenty of them), and make some arrangement with Pi Delta Epsilon so everyone who attends the Prom will get his name in the Razz Berry.

Puns are rated as the lowest form of humor. The following conversation has just ensued: "Jaquette: 'Do you expect this of a man of my caliber?' Henderson: 'Whatdumeen caliber? Big bore?'"

A clever contraption has just made its bow here at the University, and threatens to back even the Yo-Yo's off the map. A friend of ours has a watch—one with radium figures and all that—which he just purchased. It's only the size of an Ingersoll, but it has an alarm attached. Now he sets the alarm in certain classes, and wakes up just in time to hear the period bell ring.

A rather prominent B-M. O. C. (Big Man on Campus), who has boasted to his friends that in well over three years he has never had a date with a G. W. girl, has at last succumbed, he blushing admits. He'll get rash and date a Pi Phi next. Or maybe it was a Pi Phi this time.

Winifrede Beall is the only person on campus who has a chance to become the Colonial Belle in the Cherry Tree contest—that is, until somebody else gets ten votes. Some wag would say that Winnie has an undue advantage on account of her name.

As a farewell offering to Hazel Peterson who is editing her last issue of The Hatchet since she graduates in February, all copy was up, and work finished at eleven o'clock Sunday night. That's a better present than most people imagine.

Local sorority is selling "voices" in the disposition of a hope chest. So far as our hopes of winning are concerned, we can barely whisper.

DICK ROLLO.

PLANS ARE MADE FOR ANNUAL HOP, COUNCIL REPORTS

Interfraternity Prom Will Have Many Unique Features, Is Promise

WILLARD TO BE SCENE OF YEARLY SOCIAL HOP

Both Men and Girls to Receive Favors; Razzberry to Appear

The Annual Interfraternity Prom, to be held at the Willard Hotel, February 23, will be unique in several ways. The date is one month earlier than usual to avoid having warm weather and tuxedos at the same party. The Social Chairman of the Interfraternity Council also announces that the dance will be somewhat more formal than hitherto. It will be held to a carefully worked out schedule.

Favors will be given to men as well as to girls. Although the men are trying to find out what the favors are, there seems to be no information forthcoming on them until the night of the Prom itself.

The Social Committee of the Interfraternity Council, James Fleck, Acacia, Chairman; Normant Hawkins, Kappa Sigma; Arthur Davis, Sigma Phi Epsilon; William Snow, Sigma Chi; and Robert Gray, Phi Sigma Kappa, have completed their plans for the event and, with the exception of the names of the orchestra and the patrons, have given out the news.

The music will be furnished by a well known orchestra the name of which will be reported later.

The Grand Promenade will be staged about eleven o'clock—the dance lasting from 10 till 2. At the Grand Promenade the favors will be given out and the scholastic and athletic cups awarded.

The Razz Berry, satirical sheet of Pi Delta Epsilon journalistic fraternity, will go on sale immediately after the Grand Promenade. This paper with its scorching satire printed on appropriately colored paper is always a hit at the Proms.

PANHELLENIC CONGRESS WILL HOLD CONVENTION

Margaret Selvig, Mary Hudson and Della Little Will Represent Panhellenic in Ohio

The annual Panhellenic convention will be held this year at Columbus, Ohio. The date has not been finally decided on as yet, but it will be the weekend of either the seventh or fourteenth of February. There are three delegates to be sent to the convention from the G. W. Panhellenic Association this year. They are: Margaret Selvig, next year's Panhellenic president, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Mary Hudson, Pi Beta Phi; and Della Little, Chi Omega. The G. W. Panhellenic Association will give a subscription dance in Corcoran Hall, room 1, on the night of January 18. The music will be furnished by a favorite orchestra, and it is expected that it will be in every way a "good" dance. The members of Panhellenic decided to give a dance at night instead of the tea dance heretofore given, because they thought it would be more popular with the students.

At the last meeting a list of the closed dates of all the sororities was read, and it was announced that invitations for all rush parties except final parties may be mailed any time after Monday, February 10.

WILBUR TALKS AT CHAPEL

Chapel was held on Friday, January 10, in Corcoran Hall at 12:10. Dean Wilbur presided and gave a short talk on the influence of fellowship and the need of organic unity in religion.

NOLAN APPEARS ON RADIO

Last night, Tuesday, January 14, the Old Gold Hour presented in addition to Paul Whiteman and his orchestra, Mary Nolan, the star of Shanghai Lady. Other features were the ever popular Rhythm Kings.

STEVENS HAS "T" CARDS

Troubadours may obtain their "T's" by obtaining an authorized card from Thomas ("Whitney") Stevens to present to Balfour.

Dr. TIBOR ECKHARDT, Prominent Statesman and Journalist of Hungary, Who Will Speak in Corcoran Hall, January 22.

G. W. U. TO HAVE NOTED SPEAKER

Dr. Eckhardt, Prominent Hungarian Statesman, to Speak On January 22

TO BE IN CORCORAN HALL

"Economic Problems of Central Europe" To Be Subject of Talk

Dr. Tibor Eckhardt, prominent statesman and journalist of Hungary, will speak at George Washington University Wednesday, January 22, at 11:15 o'clock in the morning, in Corcoran Hall, Room 1. The subject of his address will be "Economic Problems of Central Europe." Dr. Eckhardt is one of the most prominent of the younger statesmen and journalists of Hungary. He attended the Universities of Budapest, Berlin, and Paris, where he graduated with high honors as Doctor of Law and Political Science. Although appointed as Assistant Professor of Law in the University of Budapest, he was unable to occupy the position because of service in the world war. During part of the war he served as attaché of the High Commissioner for Transylvania, and in 1918 after the outbreak of the revolution, he was elected Commandant of the National Guard of his district. Later he became one of the organizers of the Hungarian National Army.

Interested in Reform Before the war he took an active part in the elaboration of the administrative reform law of Hungary, served as District Attorney in Transylvania from 1916-1918, and in 1922 actively entered the service of his government as Chief of the Department of Press in the State Department, and later for the Prime Minister. In this year, Dr. Eckhardt was elected to Parliament, and was known as one of the most brilliant speakers in this body. On the return of King Charles IV to Hungary, and the attempt to reestablish the Hapsburgs upon the Hungarian throne, he vigorously protested, and became the leader of the Independent National Party.

The climax of his political career came with his appointment as Minister of the Interior, and later as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Many times during the post-war period of reconstruction, Dr. Eckhardt had charge of important financial, economic and commercial negotiations for the Hungarian Government in foreign countries, and in this field he is considered an outstanding authority.

Dr. Eckhardt is well known as a publicist, for he has written many of the leading papers of Hungary. Among the most important books which he has written are: "The Essence of Nationalism," "Hungarian Legislation and National Minorities" and "The Attempted Return of King Charles IV."

Philosophical Society Receives Recognition

Honorary Club For Seminar Students First of Its Kind At G. W.

Formal recognition of the Philosophical Society of G. W. U. has been made, according to Frances Held, secretary.

The first meeting was held December 18, 1929, at the studio of Dr. Marshall Sherman, 1612 Twentieth Street. The members gathered around the log fire, during the evening and discussed "Ultimate Reality."

Officers of the club are: John McNeely, president; Dr. E. E. Richardson, honorary president, and Frances Held, secretary. Other members include: Cyrus Johnson, Natalie Lake, Lawrence Gleicher, Esther R. Weksler, and Irving Freidson.

The club is an honorary one for students of seminar philosophy who have shown an interest in philosophy and want to do further philosophical research work. It is the first of its kind at George Washington.

CHERRY BLOSSOM SALE PLANNED

G. W. U. Masonic Club Makes Preliminary Plans For Annual Campaign

FORMER SALES ARE LARGE

Money To Be Used For Educational Fund; Sorority Girls Will Help In Sale

The George Washington University Masonic Club has worked out the preliminary plans for its annual sale of cherry blossoms on the campus. The final arrangements will be completed at the next meeting which will be held the first Monday in February.

Cherry blossom sales are the means adopted by the National League of Masonic Clubs to raise a part of the $250,000 Educational Fund for the establishment of a chair of foreign service in the school of government of George Washington University. This fund has no relation to the $1,000,000 given by the Scottish Rite for the foundation of the school of government.

The local Masonic Club inaugurated its sales of cherry blossoms two years ago. Hitherto the sales—always held around February 22—have proved very successful. This year a group of prominent sorority girls have agreed to help sell the blossoms. The names have not yet been released by the Club, but they are promised for a later issue of The Hatchet.

The club expects to sell 600 blossoms during the latter part of February. The blossoms will be sold for ten cents each of which part goes to the crippled soldiers who made them and the greater half to the Educational Fund.

SUMMER SCHOOL WILL GIVE VARIOUS COURSES

Nine Weeks' Session Will Begin June 16; Six Weeks' Period Opens June 30

The first term of the 1930 Summer Session of George Washington University is scheduled to begin on June 16 in Columbian College, the School of Engineering, the Graduate School of Letters and Sciences, the School of Pharmacy, the School of Education, the School of Government, the Division of Library Science, and the Division of Fine Arts, there will be a nine weeks' term, extending from June 16 to August 16, and a six weeks' term from June 30 to August 9. The summer session of the Law School is divided into two terms, the first running from June 16 to July 30, and the second from July 31 to September 13.

Approximately 130 courses will be offered by members of the University faculty and visiting professors from other institutions in the following departments of instruction: Botany, Chemistry, Economics, Education, Engineering, English, Fine Arts, including Architecture and Graphic Art, Geology, German, History, Law, Library Science, Mathematics, Music, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Public Speaking, Romance Languages, including French and Spanish, Sociology, and Zoology.

In addition to the regular college subjects many specialized courses for art students, teachers and librarians will be available. In the graduate school of letters and sciences provision for special research by advanced students will be made.

The summer sessions are an integral part of the University, and all courses offered are equivalent to the corresponding courses offered in the regular terms. Academic credit for the completed work will be given toward the appropriate degrees in the various schools and divisions of the University.

The summer sessions offer to regular students of the University an opportunity to continue their University work during the summer period and to students and teachers from all parts of the country an opportunity for study in the Nation's Capital.

The 1930 summer sessions are under the direction of Dr. Robert Whitney Bolwell, professor of American Literature in the University.

FELLOWSHIPS OFFERED

Tufts College offers Braker Graduate Teaching Fellowships in Economics with a stipend of one thousand dollars each. Open to men and women holding a recognized Bachelor's Degree. Applications should be sent before March 1, 1930, to the Head of Department of Economics and Sociology, Tufts College, Tufts College, Mass.

MID-YEAR DANCE

The Colonial Club will sponsor a mid-year dance on Saturday evening, February 1, from 9 to 12 o'clock, in Corcoran Hall. The Lido Band will play.

G. W. U. FOOTBALL TEAM OPPOSES NAVAL ACADEMY IN FINAL GAME OF 1930

Scheduling of Game with Powerful Navy Eleven Comes as Surprise Even to Ardent Supporters and Followers Of Colonial Athletes

INGRAM, NAVY COACH, SUGGESTED GAME AT BANQUET, BUT EXPECTED DATE WAS 1931

Catholic University Authorities Consent to Change Their Annual Game With George Washington University From Thanksgiving Day To Preceding Saturday, November 22

With the scheduling of the United States Naval Academy football team for a game at Annapolis on November 29, 1930, the University football schedule is rapidly nearing completion.

A game with Navy comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the Hatchette team, despite the rumors concerning such a game that have been prominent for some time. There were many who believed a game would take place between representatives of the two schools, but 1931 was considered to be the most logical date.

CHERRY TREE TO SHOW G. W. LIFE

Colonial Belle to be Chosen as Representative of Co-Eds Of the University

PICTURES TAKEN JAN. 26

Official Photographer Will Be On Duty All Evening Sunday, January 26

Student life at George Washington presented in the Colonial theme will be the chief feature of the 1930 Cherry Tree, according to Dorothy Ruth, chairman of the Board of Editors. Many drawings and pictures of the University will appear throughout the main division of the annual, which will interpret pictorially the spirit of the University. This idea will be furthered in the feature section, where several pages are to be given over to snapshots of students, activities, campus scenes, and the like. All students are invited to contribute to this section.

At present, a contest is being conducted by the Cherry Tree to choose Miss Colonial Belle. This is to be the girl named by the student body as most representative and most popular in the college. Each vote costs a dollar, which is used as the first payment, the remaining three dollars to be paid in the spring when the book appears. To nominate, ten votes must be cast for the candidate. At present, only Winifrede Beall has received the necessary number of votes. Anyone registered in the University is eligible to cast a ballot. Blanks may be had from Joe Howard, at the Bureau's Office, or from any of the numerous salesmen on the campus.

January 26 is the only day that has been definitely announced when pictures may be taken. Mr. Casson, the official photographer, will be in 712 Twentieth Street on that day from seven o'clock in the evening until quite late. Seniors in all departments of the University are urged to have their pictures taken at this time. Those students who are named in this issue of The Hatchet as reporters are also invited to have their photographs made.

Registration Continues Through January 2-18

Changes Made Necessary By Failures Exempt From Late Registration Fee

Registration for the second semester of George Washington University opened on January 2, and students may make out their programs, secure approval of their Dean, fill in the registration forms, take their papers to the Bureau's Office and sign the contract for payment of tuition at any time through January 18.

Students failing in a course may have the privilege of late registration in such course without late registration fee until February 19.

Law School students must register for the second semester during the week Monday, January 27, to Saturday, February 1. From Monday to Thursday the hours will be 3 to 5:15 p. m. Friday and Saturday the hours will be from 9 to 12 a. m., and 3 to 6 p. m. All registration will be made in Stockton Hall 1.

ENGINEERS ADDRESSED

The George Washington student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers will meet tonight, January 15, at 7:30, in room 17 of Corcoran Hall. Mr. J. E. Crown, Master Mechanic of the naval gun factory foundry, will speak.

Mr. Crown is an expert on foundry methods, and is past secretary of the Washington and Baltimore section of the American Society for Steel Testing. His subject will be: "The Relation Between Foundry Practices and the Engineer."

Prospects of such a game were first hinted at during the annual football banquet, held on December 10, at the Mayflower Hotel, under the auspices of the Colonial Club. On this occasion "Navy Bill" Ingram, head football coach of the Naval Academy this past season, was the principal speaker. Several times during the course of his address, he mentioned that it was his desire that the Navy meet George Washington in football in the near future.

At that time he stressed the point that such a step would be a most welcome one by Naval Academy authorities, and with the improved football conditions existing at George Washington, he would do all he could, as long as he was connected with the athletic department of the Academy, to foster relations in all branches of sport between the two institutions.

However, no suggestion was made that connections in football would take place at such an early date. He stated that the decisive defeat dealt his "B" squad by the George Washington Freshmen, gave him the impression that the time had come when a George Washington eleven may be considered a dangerous and worthy foe.

Choice Date Selected

The truth of the above fact may be proven by the choice date selected for the contest. The game will be played in Annapolis on Saturday, November 29. This necessitated moving up the annual grid classic with Catholic University to the previous Saturday, November 22. It had been scheduled for its accustomed place on the schedule Thanksgiving Day. Catholic University readily gave their consent to the change.

Coach Pixlee considers himself fortunate in procuring the Navy game so late in the season. He will be pointing his men for these two big classics at the end of the season.

This is the first time in the history of football at the University that the Naval Academy game has been scheduled and is a decided step forward in the athletic conditions of the school. The Navy has been met in other lines of athletics, especially in basketball, and the annual basketball game has always been considered one of the foremost games on the schedule.

American U. Omitted

Only one open date now remains on the University grid schedule. This was caused by the cancellation of the American University game by authorities of the latter school. Coach Pixlee had saved an early Saturday in October for American U., as has been the custom in the past. However, the Eagles wanted to play late in November, but in view of the developments of the past week, this would have been impossible. Therefore, no game will be played between the two schools in 1930.

Coach Pixlee has been negotiating with the University of Iowa for a game to fill this open date, but as yet nothing definite has been arranged. However, if it is scheduled, it is not unlikely that Coach Pixlee will try to have the game played here in Griffith Stadium.

It is understood that games have been arranged with the University of South Dakota, Tulsa University, Dickinson and the New York Aggies. As soon as the open date is filled the 1930 football team will be called upon to face the most difficult schedule yet undertaken by a Colonial eleven.

ORCHESTRA WILL RESUME PRACTICE AFTER EXAMS

The orchestra has not had a meeting for about two weeks, but it will start its regular meetings immediately after the mid-year examinations. At that time all the old members are requested to be present. All students who are interested and have ability are urged to join at the next meeting.

WASHINGTON, D. C., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1930

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Last summer, when G. W.'s new athletic system was first placed in operation, the student body was asked not to expect immediate results from the policy. Real results were promised in not less than four years.

But it has taken only a very short time for definite successes to be achieved. The G. W. freshman football team was unusually successful in its 1929 campaign. Only too often, though, football is placed so high in the collegiate athletic systems that other sports are subordinated to insignificance. Lest basketball, always a major sport at G. W., be thus lowered it might be well to note the record of the present freshman basketball team.

Victorious in all of its six starts, this wide-awake team is enhancing the reputation of G. W. freshman teams; a reputation so well created by the freshman football team. Keep this freshman basketball team and its accomplishments in mind.

The student body will not be too sanguine if it predicts success to a large degree for all varsity teams by 1931. Our hard-working freshmen and their harder-working coaches deserve praise and thanks.

G. W. STEPS UP

Close on the heels of the recent athletic banquet, at which Bill Ingram, Navy coach, expressed the hope of establishing football relations in the near future with George Washington University, comes the announcement from Coach James E. Pixlee that a game has been scheduled for November 29, 1930, with the football eleven of the Naval Academy.

The fact that Pixlee took his freshmen gridmen to Annapolis during the past season and administered a decisive 19-0 defeat to Coach Ingram's "B" squad no doubt played an important role in the scheduling of the game. This is ample proof that Coach Pixlee's athletic system is bearing fruit and that George Washington athletic teams may battle representatives of other schools on equal terms in the future.

This is the first time in the history of the University that a Buff and Blue team has met a team from Annapolis on the football field. Tennis, rifle and basketball have held important places on the G. W. athletic programs in the past. These games are relatively unimportant when compared with the great American game of football.

The scheduling of this game marks an important step forward in the athletic development of the school, as it establishes a Colonial eleven as a worthy competitor on the gridiron. With the playing of Navy, it is not unlikely or improbable that in the near future football teams of numerous other large schools throughout the country will be encountered by the Hatchettes.

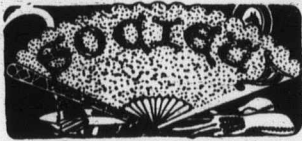

Coach Pixlee is to be highly congratulated on the inauguration of the new athletic system at the University which has brought such prominent athletes to the school and arranged such attractive engagements for the teams.

CHERRY BLOSSOM TIME

The George Washington University Masonic Club will shortly inaugurate its annual sale of cherry blossoms on the campus. The money derived from this enterprise will be used to raise part of the $250,000 Educational Fund for the establishment of a chair of foreign service in the school of government of G. W. U.

In the past two years the efforts of the club in this direction have met with unusual success. Splendid cooperation among the student body to make successful this noteworthy activity has spurred the members to greater zeal in their attempt to widen the scope of educational opportunity at George Washington.

The club deserves the heartiest congratulations of the student body for their splendid endeavor. But mere compliments for past work are hardly sufficient. The most advisable way for the students to show their appreciation of good work done is to back the coming sale wholeheartedly and thereby hasten the expansion of the school of government.

Debating Society Plans Elections This Friday

Friskie Not to Run For President; Society Refuses to Endorse Disarmament

The Columbian Debating Society announces to all its members that election of officers will take place at the regular meeting Friday evening, January 17, and urges every member to attend. It is also announced that Karl Friskie, the society's present executive, "does not choose to run" for this next "campaign."

At the meeting last Friday night a small but enthusiastic audience decided by a very close margin against the policy of "disarmament." The speakers in favor of the subject were Gilbert Rabinowitz and Paul Linebarger; those opposed were Norman R. Hagen and Paul Keough.

Rabinowitz opened the debate very effectively, advancing the argument that disarmament is of vital economic necessity. Hagen then spoke for the negative, declaring disarmament impractical. Linebarger closed for the affirmative by sarcastically discussing the negative viewpoint. Keough concluded the debate by eloquently denouncing the subject involved as "un-American." Speakers from the floor were Ralph Morgali and James G. Vingo.

Due to the election no debate has been scheduled for this week.

Inter-University Glee Club Association Is Established

Winfield Weitzel, Representative From George Washington, Named Executive Secretary

The Middle Atlantic Intercollegiate Glee Club Association was organized at a meeting held Sunday at the George Washington University, with Johns Hopkins, Catholic University and George Washington University as its charter members.

Hon. William H. DeLacy, a very prominent Washingtonian, was elected president of the association, and will assist in selecting a board of directors from a group of professional and business men, who are alumni of the various universities. He is a member of the bar, and was a judge of the Juvenile Court of the District of Columbia, later resigning to accept a position as Dean of the Law School of Catholic University. He is well known in official and social circles and will be a great asset to the organization.

Winfield Weitzel, one of the representatives from George Washington, was elected executive secretary, the office of the association to be filled by a student. He will head an executive committee made up of representatives of each school, through which the board will carry on the activities of the organization.

The group will become an associate member of the Intercollegiate Musical Council, Inc., the purpose of which is to encourage male chorus singing of the highest excellence in the universities, colleges and preparatory schools of the United States of America, and to raise the standards of singing there in by means of competitive contests and to give musical receptions and concerts at which the glee clubs of universities, colleges and preparatory schools may sing competitively.

The Middle Atlantic Association will hold a sectional preliminary contest each year, similar to those held in every section of the country, and the winner of this local contest will represent the section in a national contest to be held in New York City.

Arrangements are being completed to hold the sectional contest this year in Washington, on Saturday, March 1, at a place yet to be designated. Definite announcement will be made through a later issue of The Hatchet.

Women's Advisory Council To Give Second Tea Today

Mabelle Jennings To Be Present at Affair Held in Women's Building

Close on the heels of its successful pre-holiday party for all women students, the Women's Advisory Council will entertain from 5-8 Thursday, January 16, with another "at home" for women of the evening classes. It will be held in the Women's Building.

Mabelle Jennings, dramatic editor of the Washington News, has accepted the invitation to be present and meet the university women attending. Other honor guests include women prominently connected with the school: Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., trustee; Mrs. William Allen Wilbur, wife of the provost; and Miss Elizabeth Cullen, president of the Columbian Women.

Cards and music will feature the informal affair, with refreshments being provided by the Home Economics Department. Tea will be poured by members of the organization, and other girls have been asked to assist with serving.

G. W. COURTMEN GET EVEN BREAK IN PAIR OF GAMES

Defeat American University Eagles, But Lose to Villanova Five

HARRIS' FOUR BASKETS AIDS COLONIAL VICTORY

Home Team Unable To Hold Early Lead In The Villanova Game

The Colonial Basketball team have played two more games, defeating the American University Eagles by a score of 29-22, and losing the second game to the Villanova Wildcats 33-21. The G. W. five have won 3 games and lost two so far this season. Their next two games take them to foreign courts when they meet the Randolph-Macon and Richmond Medical College teams.

The game with A. U. was close and exciting even though A. U. lost four of their regulars early in the week before the game. G. W. took the lead at the beginning but lost it because of the accurate shooting of the Eagle's center, Sells. In the first half he dropped four baskets in for a total of eight points. G. W. took the lead again in the first half and kept it during the rest of the game.

Harris was high point scorer for G. W. making eight points by virtue of four baskets. Sells tallied nine points for the opposing team.

Colonials Lead

The Colonial's started the Villanova game by taking the lead with four shots by Harris and Fine and a field goal by Fine. The Wildcats broke away then and chalked up three field goals to take the lead 6-4. The lead changed again to G. W., but only momentarily for the Villanova five again counted for two field goals by Birmingham and Tracy to take a lead which they steadily added to for the remainder of the game. The half ended with an 18-10 score in Villanova's favor. Czeslik, a small forward for the Wildcats dropped

Class Managers Are Picked In Swimming

Crittenden, White, Walker and Kyle Will Organize Class Teams For Meet

Class managers have been appointed in women's class swimming at George Washington in preparation for the interclass meet which will be held on Saturday evening, February 15, at the Y. W. C. A. pool.

Marjorie Crittenden will be in charge of the freshmen lineup; Grace White is to manage the sophomore team; the junior manager will be Amalie Walker and Claudia Kyle is at the head of the senior entrants. Betsy Booth, manager of the sport is director of the four class teams.

A minimum requirement of three periods a week from December 1 up to January 6 is necessary to qualify for the meet. From January 6 until February 15 the requirement is two weekly practices. Back practices may be made up in the third period of the week when the Y. W. C. A. pool is open to G. W. students.

In 3 baskets in the second half to make his total for the game 11 points.

He was one of the fastest and most accurate men on the floor.

Harris, in the second half, came through with two spectacular shots which gave an added touch of excitement to the game.

TUMBLING INAUGURATED IN GYMNASIUM CLASSES

Miss Ruth Atwell, director of Physical Education for Women at George Washington, has inaugurated a new system of exercises in the gym classes by teaching tumbling as well as the usual setting up exercises.

It is said that tumbling makes for an all-around development of the body, bringing out suppleness rather than strength. The abdominal muscles are brought equally into use. The tumbler's body remains live and graceful, with no one set of muscles overdeveloped.

The tumbling exercises include cartwheels, handstands, headstands, diving, balance, somersaults and pyramids.

Setting up exercises are also given as drills for posture and muscle coordination.

The classes will be divided into groups according to their ability and those who show promise will receive special attention.

MEMORAH MEMBERS SPEAK

At the meeting of the Menorah Society held Thursday, January 9, at Corcoran Hall, Julia Bonwill talked on Baruch Spinoza, ex-communited Jewish philosopher of the fifteenth century; and Israel Mendelson, founder of the George Washington Chapter of the Menorah Society in 1924, reviewed several articles in the Menorah Journal, the magazine published by the intercollegiate Menorah Society.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, February 13. The date for the annual dance has not been decided.

COURT MANAGERS NAMED

Basketball managers have been named for interclass basketball. The senior manager is Josephine Irey; the junior, Martha Benenson; the sophomore, Catherine McCallum; and the freshman, Helen Chaffee.

FRESHMAN FIVE DEFEATS 3 FOES

Columbus U., Eastern High and French A. C. Are Victims

COLUMBUS U. IS SWAMPED

Burgess Again Leads Scorers, While Carlin Also Shines Against Eastern

Columbus University, the French A. C., and Eastern High School have been added to the list of victims of the Freshmen basketball team. Excellent teamwork and an equally good floor game have been developed, and to date the Cubs have had little trouble defeating their opponents, with the exception of Business High, by overwhelming scores.

Eddie Romig, with 11 points, was the high scorer of the game with Columbus. The Cubs were victorious by a score of 35-8.

In the game with the French A. C. the advantage of training and conditioning was evident. The visitors started well and at the end of the first quarter were in the van by 5-4. With the increased speed of the second quarter they quickly tired and the Cubs went rapidly into the lead, never to be headed. Forrest Burgess was the high scorer with 19 points. He alone accounted for enough points to defeat the visiting club. The final score was 33-18.

Eastern Defeated

Eastern High School was the opponent in the third game and was defeated by a score of 43-24. The Easterners made repeated attempts to use the block play to advantage, but were unsuccessful. Their pony team started well, but were replaced by the regulars near the end of the first half. Lee Carlin and Burgess led the winners with 14 and 11 points respectively.

COACH SEEKS TO BUILD SQUAD FOR SWIMMING

Swimming Instruction Is Carried On Regularly In Ambassador Hotel Pool

In lieu of the athletic activities of the University, and in accord with the general plan of improvement, Coach Max Farrington has been conducting advanced swimming and swimming instruction classes at the Ambassador Hotel pool for the past semester. The athletic department is striving to re-open an old activity of the University, and to develop a squad to represent the University in intercollegiate competition. The University has had no team active in collegiate representation since 1925.

The development of such a team should be far from difficult, since over half the student body are at least fair swimmers. With this material to work on, Coach Farrington hopes to develop a strong team to represent the school.

The point at hand at this immediate time is to gather a group together which can represent the school in a small scale in intercollegiate competition. Aside from the advanced classes there are many men attending the University who are as good if not better swimmers than usual. Then, too, a various number of swimming instructors are to be found enrolled in school, as well as two South Atlantic swimming champions.

Assistant Athletic Director Farrington is anxious to have any man at all interested in this field of activity to send his name, telephone number, and possible hours of practice to the gymnasium. If necessary, night practices may be arranged. Within the next two weeks the situation will be well organized and announcements made as to the time and place of action.

CHEERLEADERS

Applications for cheerleaders will be accepted until January 18, at the Gym. Applicants who have reported should leave their classroom schedule with the Athletic Director as soon as possible.

G. W. MEETS CORNELL IN RIFLE COMPETITION

Women Down University of Pennsylvania By 21 Points In First Match

The second match of the season for the women's varsity rifle team was shot against Cornell University last Saturday, January 11. George Washington scored 493 out of a possible 500. The opponent score has not yet been received.

The high five who made up the total were:

Parsons	99
Corea	99
Todd	99
Wright	98
Cuvillier	98
Total	493

This is the first test of marksmanship that G. W. has ever had with Cornell. Although this week's score is not as perfect as the 497 shot in the first match of the season, it is nevertheless a very good total and stands a chance of winning. In the Pot and Circle Championship tourney last year Cornell placed third with 485, while the Buff and Blue crashed through to first place on 499.

Arlene Spencer, manager, has announced that the score of the University of Pennsylvania has been received and G. W. defeated them by 21 points.

The high five in the match with the Pennsylvanians were:

Parsons	100
Crumley	100
Wright	99
Spencer	99
Todd	99

G. W. total 497
vs. U. of Penn. 476

The class matches in the intramural schedule will take place during the last week of February. The class teams will consist of three girls each, the squads to be chosen in February. No varsity members will compete in the class matches.

The next varsity match will be January 18, against Penn State.

Meeting of Dramatics, Tonight in Corcoran 24

Mary Crowley Named President; Club Plans to Give Play In Spring

Tonight in Corcoran Hall, room 24, the second meeting of a group of students interested in dramatics will take place. At a meeting held before the holidays, Mary Crowley was elected president, Frank Westbrook vice-president, and Margaret Harriman was chosen secretary.

An elaborate program has been planned by the organization which will include a group of one-act plays to be given each meeting by members of the club. The climax of the year will be reached when a well-known play will be given in the spring. Two years ago, "Twice Two Is Five" was given at Wardman Park, and proved a great success. Last year, a group of three one-act plays were so well received that the program was repeated for an outside organization.

At present the membership of the club has not been filled. Until the quota is complete candidates will be admitted without tryouts. After that time, those wishing to join will have to pass before a board of judges to become eligible.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION NOMINATES NEW OFFICERS

Baptist Students to Hold Meeting of Entire Union to Vote

The first business meeting of the Baptist Student Union was held Wednesday evening when the nominating committee met and suggested the nomination of the following officers:

The above list is subject to a vote of the entire union during a party which is being planned for January 31. These officers together with a representative to each Baptist church in the city will comprise the Baptist Student Council.

MINISTERIAL GROUP TO PROMOTE FELLOWSHIP

A group of students of religion in the University have organized the Ministerial Students Club of the District of Columbia, the purpose of which is to promote ministerial fellowship and provide a program of devotional, educational and service activities.

Membership in the club will be open to candidates for the gospel ministry in evangelistic or pastoral capacity and to students of missionary work, religious education and religious administration. Any student in the University interested in this type of work is invited to interview Mr. Kinard at the Y. M. C. A., who will gladly furnish him with any information relating to the organization.

COLONIAL BOXERS ON G. U. SCHEDULE

Washington and Lee is Tentatively Listed as G. W.'s First Opponent

CATHOLIC U. HAS MATCH

Coach Green Expects Team To Participate in U. of P. Intercollegiate Competition in March

Coach "Bucky" Green has been sending the boxing squad through their paces daily in the final drive to have the men in the best possible condition for the opening game with Washington and Lee University on January 25. With preliminary competition over, the squad is anxious to open the season as soon as possible.

The schedule as yet has not been fully developed as all dates have not been definitely agreed upon. However, the prospects show some formidable opponents for the Colonials to overcome. The season is expected to open with Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., unless certain Southern Conference rules prohibit the bouts. These rules would make certain Colonial boxers ineligible. If this difficulty can not be overcome the season will open with either Franklin and Marshall College or the Pennsylvania Military College at the home gymnasium.

The most important meet on the schedule will come in the last competitor of the season, namely, Georgetown. The opposition found here will far outweigh that of any other college on the schedule.

The Schedule

Jan. 25—Washington & Lee (there), or Franklin & Marshall (here) or Pennsylvania Military (here).
Feb. 5—Catholic U. (there).
Feb. 14—Manhattan College (there).
Feb. 27—Manhattan College (here).
Mar. 15—Georgetown U. (here).

Penn Meet Starts March 22

Following this Coach Green will take four or five men to the national inter-collegiate meets to be held at the University of Pennsylvania, March 22 and 23. This inter-collegiate meet brings together the pick of all college teams in the country.

Up to the present time the team stands as follows:

415 lbs.—Bantamweight:	Levertown
And Cohen
125 lbs.—Featherweight:	Jeweler
And Kleiman
135 lbs.—Lightweight:	Jones and Goldstein
145 lbs.—Welterweight:	Terry and Covaleskie
165 lbs.—Middleweight:	Atherton
And Stanley
175 lbs.—Light-heavyweight:	Duffalo

Heavyweight: Oeschlaenger. Kleiman, Covaleskie and Stanley will probably be taken to the inter-collegiate meets at Philadelphia. "Bucky" wishes to announce that no matter where the meets are held,

GIRLS' VOLLEY BALL IS NOW IN SECOND ROUND

Phi Phi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and A21 Group Win First Games

Although handicapped somewhat due to the nearness of examinations, the volley ball tournament, the second intramural endeavor, has completed its first round and one match in the second round.

Because some of the girls have never played volley ball before, and all the groups are more or less evenly matched, the games are quite interesting. Girls cheering their respective groups are always present and excitement runs high.

The results of the first round are as follows: January 8, Phi Beta Phi defeated Chi Omega; January 9, Kappa Kappa Gamma defeated Sigma Kappa; Dorothy Ruth's group defeated to Cary Aal's group.

Each volleyball team consists of five players, three of whom play on the front line and two on the back court. Each game consists of fifteen points, and the group winning two out of three games, is the winner of the match.

Phi Mu vs. the winner of McCallam's group vs. Zeta Tau Alpha.

Thursday 16—Phi Beta Phi vs. Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Results:

LIBERAL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR SEASON

Lecture By Dr. Goldenweiser, Noted Anthropologist, Proves Eminent Success

A business meeting of the Liberal Club was held last Monday evening at the residence of Paul Linebarger, club president. Plans were made for future speakers and reports concerning the membership and budget of the club were presented.

The officers elected for the year 1930 through to February, 1931, were: Paul Linebarger and Robert Shostack, re-elected president and secretary, respectively; Annabelle Day, treasurer, and Nanette Dembitz, vice president. John Barbers, Lewis Dembitz, Lawrence Giehrer and Stephen Brunauer were elected to the executive committee.

The lecture given by Dr. Alexander Goldenweiser, noted anthropologist, under the auspices of the club, was eminently successful. The program was given at the Jewish Community Center, on the evening of January 9.

The topic discussed by Dr. Goldenweiser was "Is Man a Machine?" He described the very common question so often propounded in our so-called Machine Age, whether men themselves were not being made into robots and automata by the universal influences of machines.

He declared that the resemblance between men and machines was entirely due to the human influence in machines, since it was obvious that all mechanical devices are the product of the human mind and human characteristics of intelligence. He pointed out the dog, with its many human traits which have resulted from association with humanity, and called it "domesticated animal life," comparing it with machines, which were termed "domesticated natural forces."

The next lecture to be presented by the Liberal Club will be on January 22, when Dr. John Gray will speak on "The Stock Markets' Collapse: A Liberal Interpretation." Dr. Gray, is president of the American Economics Association and a nationally famous student of social and economic forces.

John Held, Jr., Wields A Wicked Pen For Old Gold Cigarettes

Those of our so-called student body who fancy themselves in the roles of Lotharios, handsome ne'er-do-wells and old-fashioned heroes of romance, will do well to study the helps and hints contained in Mr. John Held, Jr.'s series of OLD GOLD advertisements now appearing in this paper.

The inimitable Held object lessons in successful courtship are among the funniest things we have ever seen in print. That they should appear as sales persuaders for Old Golds, subtracts nothing whatever from their funniness.

We make no bones about the fact that any advertisement in our columns gives us something of a thrill. Business is business even to a college newspaper—but when an advertiser gives us his money and a hearty laugh to boot, we feel like we are playing the game on the velvet.

Long May John Held continue to portray his melodramatic villains and touch-me-not maidens of long ago. And may his heroes and heroines never find a cough in a carload!

"Service and Friendship" was the topic of an address by Coleman Jennings before members of the Episcopal Club of George Washington University last Thursday evening.

At this meeting the club completed plans for an open dance which was held in Corcoran Hall last Friday night. A large number of students took advantage of this opportunity to frolic once more before taking up the arduous task of preparing for mid-year exams. Melodies and what-nots were dispensed for the benefit of the revelers by the Kendrick Ajax Orchestra.

The Episcopal Club decided at its last meeting to make contributions to a fund being raised by the National Student Council of Episcopal Clubs to provide chairs in chemistry and anatomy at the St. John's College Medical School at Shanghai, China. This fund is to be used also in providing scholarships to the school.

Due to the mid-year examinations the next meeting of the club will be postponed until February 14.

Women's Glee Club Has Two Scheduled Dates

Club to Appear in Mt. Vernon M. E. Church; Dance Given December 20

The Women's Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. Robert Harmon, will make three public appearances during February, including a recital at the Mt. Vernon M. E. Church, and an engagement to furnish entertainment during the intermission at the Intercollegiate Glee Club contest in which the Men's Glee Club will participate on January 19. The other engagement has not been definitely decided as yet.

The Women's Glee Club holds two practices during the week, one on Wednesday from 3:00 to 5:30 o'clock, and the other on Saturday from 12:15 to 1:00 o'clock, at which Dr. Harmon desires full attendance.

The club held a very successful dance in Corcoran Hall on Friday, December 20, according to the President, Caroline Snyder. McWilliams Orchestra furnished the music.

Jane Wilson, Bert Bagranoff, and Harry Nestor gave selections from the Troubadour's production "Gypsy in Egypt." Dean and Mrs. John R. Lapham, of the School of Engineering, and Mrs. Harmon were the chaperones.

W. A. A. SCHEDULES NEXT MEETING FOR FEB. 12

The next meeting of the Women's Athletic Association has been postponed to Wednesday, February 12.

The meeting was set for the last week in January, but Naomi Crumley, President, felt it necessary to change the date because of the mid-year exams.

Several interesting speakers are expected and full attendance is desired.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

JANUARY 23-29, 1930

Rooms in which examinations are held are stated in the right margin. Books and scratch papers may not be taken into the examination room unless authorized by the instructor in charge. Examinations will be two hours in length. Courses in Law, Medicine and Pharmacy will be arranged by each school involved.

Third group courses are not included. The class schedule is suspended during the examination period.
